PreachingHub

Pre-Preaching Checklist

Ready on paper is not the same as ready to preach

You've done the work. The exegesis is solid, the outline is set. Before you step into the pulpit, walk through this one more time — not to second-guess your prep, but to settle into it, so you can preach with a clear mind and an open hand.

Sermon title _____ Preaching date _____

1 Message Clarity

- [ ] I've prayed over this message and the people who will hear it
- [ ] I can state my big idea in one sentence from memory
- [ ] I know exactly where the gospel appears in this sermon
- [ ] My application is specific — not just "trust God more" but a concrete action

2 Opening & Closing

- [ ] My first 60 seconds are memorized or nearly memorized
- [ ] My closing lands on a clear call to response
- [ ] I know how I'm ending before I start

3 Flow & Transitions

- [ ] I can move from point to point without looking at my notes
- [ ] My illustrations support the point — they don't replace it

4 Delivery Readiness

- [ ] I've read this sermon aloud at least once
- [ ] I know where I tend to rush and have marked those spots

5 Logistics

- [ ] Notes or outline are ready and accessible
- [ ] Any tech (slides, mic) is confirmed

---

Want a full coaching report after you preach? Get your first one free at preachinghub.com/try

We don't write sermons. We build preachers.